

Omar Al Ustwani, M.D.

Dr. Omar Al Ustwani is board certified practitioner in internal medicine, medical oncology, and hematology.

He arrived in Vineland after completing his Hematology and Medical Oncology fellowship in Buffalo at Roswell Park Cancer Institute and a member of the National Comprehensive Cancer Network (NCCN) and National Cancer Institute (NCI) Designated Cancer Center.

A zealous doctor, he has been devoting his efforts to patient care in various types of cancer including, but not limited to, lung, breast, and colon, prostate and other malignancies.

He also attends patients with malignant and benign hematologic disorders.

Authoring a number of peer-reviewed publications, he currently serves on the editorial board of the Translational Gastrointestinal Cancer Journal.

He is a dynamic member of the American College of Physicians, the American Society of Hematology and the American Society of Clinical Oncology.

